Friday
Feb. 21 Don't forget the nickels, folks. The Y.M.C.A. will sell candy at the game on Friday night. Enjoy the fun with a Y.M.C.A. candy bar!

Saturday
Feb. 22 On Saturday, February 22, the senior class will give its annual senior party for the entire faculty and student body of the college. Mardi Gras, the pre-Lenten festival of New Orleans, is the theme for this year's party. In keeping with the theme, faculty and students are asked to wear costumes or summer clothes, if possible, but winter street dress will be entirely acceptable. There will be entertainment, treats and surprises for both dancers and non-dancers, so come on out and help make this the most frolicking frolic the senior class has ever put on.

Tuesday
Feb. 25 Rural Life Meeting fourth hour in the Social Room on Tues. February 25. All members be there!

GENERAL ANNOUNCEMENTS

All men majors in physical education should consult the bulletin board in Eastman Hall. All minors in physical education should complete their registration under a similar schedule as the majors.

Students, see if your home town is listed on the bulletin board. If so, write the name of your home town newspaper and its address. This is necessary for the Student Publicity Bureau.

February 27, Thursday, 8:15 P.M., Choral Club presents its winter concert of American Music, including the cantata "Ballad for Americans" with Mr. Jerde as soloist.

Sunday, March 2--Choral Club give joint concert with the Technical High School Band for the Sunday Public School Music Department Series of concerts.

The Senior class brings the Mardi Gras to Eastman Hall on Saturday evening at 8:30. There will be dancing, bingo and other games, a PARADE, a program, and refreshments for all. We would like to have everyone come in costume, but don't let not having a costume keep you away. IT'S FREE!

Please inform the Health Service when it is impossible to keep the appointment given you for a physical examination. Annual examinations of every student are compulsory and in order to complete the work it is necessary that no time be wasted.

Juniors please pay your class dues in the post office during the free hour on Wednesday or Thursday.

The Student Union at Carol Hall will be open to bondholders Saturday afternoon, February 22, from 2 to 5.
