Where Hand Meets Hand

There's a place where friendships ripen
Where new and old friends meet
Where the air seems charged with happy thots
Of those we love to greet.

Time has added link to link
Of a chain of comraderie
That binds one to the other
In a sanctum of memory.

Join once more the gladsome groups
Who choose this place to mingle
Where hand meets hand in friendly clasp
That sets the heart a-tingle.

SERVICE THAT SERVES—

Service is often promised but less frequently enjoyed by the confiding customer. Nevertheless, service today is one of the chief assets of a wide-awake retail business.

The worthiness of a Store as a shopping center may be safely judged by the kind of service it gives. Inferior quality goods and superior service cannot be found in the same Store.

Service means not only attentive, efficient salespeople, but values that provide reliable quality and worthwhile savings. This kind of service is found in this store. It is the kind you will find here each time you call.

We're Third Class Printers

CLASS I—QUALITY—Many printers feature quality work and charge extremely high prices on the strength of their reputation for quality.

CLASS II—PRICE—Many printers feature low price to the exclusion of everything else. The customer usually gets about what he pays for—which isn't much.

CLASS III—QUALITY and PRICE—A very few printers turn out quality work exclusively and yet do it in such a way as to keep the price within good reason and economy.
