"You'll shout when it hits you! Yes, Indeed!" It's the Winter Frolicade! Sponsored by the Senior class, this biggest event of the year is for you. It is a big job and every college student can help. You'll want to help, too! Ask now, of Fritz Bierhaus and Don Klein, co-chairmen, how you can do your part to make this the most dee-vine, slap-happy carnival ever to grace our campus.

Change in Method of Securing Places for Activities See Miss Hill in English department office in order to secure auditorium, room M, room Q, or Social room for any activity. Do not go to student organizations office. See Mr. Lynch to reserve Talahi Lodge, and Mr. A.F. Brainard to reserve Eastman Hall.

NEW YEAR SURPRISES AT THE LIBRARY! A SHIFT OF BOOK SHELVING from the South end to the North end of the library for greater convenience in locating books; CLEAN WALLS; and an EXHIBIT OF CHALLENGING SCIENTIFIC BOOKS are surprises waiting for you when you drop in at the library.

The University of Minnesota is broadcasting over WLB a series of 17 lectures dealing with the background and progress of the war. These lectures are by distinguished authorities and will be heard at 3:30 p.m. on Wednesdays and Fridays from January 9 to March 6, inclusive. Students of the college are urged to arrange their work so that they can listen in to as many of these lectures as possible. The first lecture on Friday of this week is by Associate Professor Lawrence Steefel on "Japan Strikes". The second on January 14 is also by Professor Steefel on "Occident and Orient - A General Survey". The other lectures will be announced from week to week.

Monday
Jan. 12

Sydney R. Montague, Ex-member of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police will speak here, either at convocation or evening of January 12, on "North to Adventure". Definite time of Mr. Montague's lecture will be announced later.

Men, women, boys, girls, people of all views and ages, have enjoyed Mr. Montague's lectures - not only once, but two and even three times. One half of his crowded calendar of bookings this season were return engagements. His popularity has been won by merit alone. He shows no pictures - but gorgeous trophies and furs!

What is life in the North really like? How do the inhabitants get along? How is law and order kept? These are some of the topics Montague discusses from his personal experiences as a Mountie. Watch for further announcements.
